FRIDAY, Sept. 24th 1890.

FOR GOVERNOR JNO P. BUCHANAN

OF RUTHERFORD.

Hon Roger Q. Mills spoke at Racine Wis. on the 22.

Enloe's majority over Ayers in the primaries in St. Cong. dist. was 240.

Remember that Buchanan speaks here Oct. 8th. the sub committeemen for this district ought to have the stand at the Academy grounds repaired.

It is powerfully "humiliating," speaking after the manner of the Columbia Herald, to make a Websterian speech one day and have to take it back next morning in open court.

The announcement of McDowell, of the Toiler, as a candidate for Comptroller is made at an inopportune time. It certainly will not increase the vote of Mr. Buchanan. CLIFTON TIMES.

The editor of the American made himself conspicuous against Cox in the convention at Columbia. The management of the organ of Democracy should keep the young man at his post, or put a padlock on his mouth. He did not advance the American's interest by his pronounced opposition to a man who has a majority following in the 7th district.

Of all the disgusting fulsome-ness and nauseating flattery that we ever gagged over the Columbia Herald's description of the oratory in the congressional convention stands foremost.

The Orators swallowed it all and opened their mouths for more. Dish 'em up some more, "Me Too," they'll take it if it is tough as butter scotch.

It has been understood all along by democrats that the American was a fair and impartial journal, but its stand for Whitthorne in the congressional race, shown through its reportorial columns, has convinced Democrats in this section that its impartiality is a misnomer. From the outset its special concerning the race have made it appear that Whitthorne was sweeping the district, and after the delegates were selected, and a majority found to be for Cox, its reported goes for his mission in stating that some counties are unfairly represented, because they are for Cox! CLIFTON TIMES.

SAN ANTONIO, TEX., --The white Republican League of Texas, known as the Lily whites, in contradistinction to the few whites who fraternize with the negro Republicans, has issued a circular calling on all white Pe-publicans to exclude negroes from the primaries and conventions. The members of the league predict a separation of the white republican party of Texas from the blacks. The opening paragraph of the circular says:

"Our patience is exhausted, and we cannot and will not long endure the shame, disgrace and humiliation brought upon republicans in Texas by the audacity, arrogance, corruption and treachery of the negro leaders and their followers. They have taken forcible possession of our primaries, and also ruled our conventions with relentless tyranny, and have driven many of the best and most patriotic white republicans out of the party ranks."

"Fellow Republicans, you who appreciate the grand and lofty principles of the Republican party, have shed your blood upon many battle fields for the suppression of slavery upon American soil and the maintenance of our Union, and you who have devoted the best years of your life to the advocacy of Republicanism in the South, who honor intelligence and love virtue, who value freedom and rejoice in the duties of citizenship, can you and will you submit any longer to the political domination of the ignorant negro in Texas, and bend your head in shame and mortification to the dictates of his corrupt and degraded leaders."

REPLY FROM OUR NORTHERN READER.

ED. DEM-- I was much disappointed on reading the Union's reply to my assertion that a Catholic cannot consistently be a republican. I had hoped he would enlighten me for once how the two could exist in one individual.

Before proceeding will say I did not doubt his loyalty to the church, otherwise would not have noticed him, and he must not blame his friends for my article as it was purely my own. I am of an inquiring mind and ask questions when occasion comes. The Union was a democrat, "in the bud" at least. He says my assertion is preposterous, that past and present history proves it. That is just what I rely on, the past and present. Don't my friend know how the republican administration treats Catholic Indians? Does he not know how they were treated by Dorchester and Morgan Indian Commissioners? And the Bennett bill in Wisconsin; also how Boston republicans harassed Catholics the last two years? If he don't know this ignorance is bliss and he may be a republican with a clear conscience. Maybe he only reads his party papers and just swims along without obstruction. When I said they were ready to cut our throats I did not mean with a knife of steel. It is generally done with a pen or pencil. Here is just one instance:

"The Roman Catholic church denounces lightning rods as an invention of mankind, believing it is impious to interfere with the messengers of the Almighty". Did the Union man ever see anything like that in a democratic paper?

"An aged Republican" takes up the know-nothing question and says it originated and was promulgated by Democrats. Did any one ever hear such absurdity? If he will substantiate it I will be a republican. I well remember who they were at the time. Their secrets were exposed by one democrat who is still living in public speeches. Now, dad, give us some evidence of your assertion, that the democrats started the know nothing party. If you do I will be with you."
